Field study in textile management
Fältstudie i textilt management
15 credits
15 högskolepoäng

Ladok Code: AE2FS1
Version: 5.0
Established by: Utskottet för utbildningar inom ekonomi och arbetsliv 2017-05-10
Valid from: Spring 2018

Education Cycle: Second cycle
Main Field of Study (Progressive Specialisation): Textile Management (A1F)
Disciplinary Domain: Social sciences
Prerequisites: Completed 30 higher education credits in textile management or equivalent knowledge included 7.5 credits course in methodology and science theory.
Subject Area: Leadership, Organisation and Management
Grading Scale: Seven-degree grading scale (A-F)

Content
The field study is an individual work with the aim to give the student the opportunity to analyse and immerse in questions and problems related to the textile industry as well as provide an insight into current research within textile management. The field study must be carried out in a textile related organisation and from a textile oriented problematisation in cooperation with a company, institution or other external partner alternatively in cooperation with researcher at the University of Borås with the aim to give the student a practical and professional application as well as deeper understanding of theories and concepts within textile management. The specific problematisation is chosen by the student in consultation with the company/tutor. It might consist of a pre-study for the upcoming master thesis (Individual Field Study), a qualified internship at a company or organisation within the textile industry (Company Internship) or a limited and applied research project in cooperation with researchers (Research Assistant Internship). Problematisation and time plan is presented in a planning report.

Learning Outcomes
Upon completing the course, students should be able to:

Knowledge and understanding
1.1 to describe and account for as well as discuss core concepts and current challenges within a chosen field of specilization and to discuss methodological approaches within textile and fashion,
1.2 describe and account for how the result of the field study may be applied in a broader context within the industry of textile and fashion,

Skills and Abilities
2.1 to plan, complete and present a larger academically qualified research work, where the student apply previous knowledge about methods and theories within the area,
2.2 analyse and draw conclusions from a relevant theoretical frame of reference and earlier research,
2.3 to produce a problem statement based on empirically collected material and earlier research,
2.4 to present the result in written and orally, in good English, to a specified target group,

Judgement and approach
3.1 show a reflective and critical approach to theoretical and practical implication of own and others field study results as presented orally and in written and
3.2 show a reflective and critical approach during participation in research seminars within textile management.

Forms of Teaching
The course consists mainly of individual work guided by tutoring sessions and seminars. Language of instruction is English.
Forms of Examination

Intended learning outcomes are examined through five parts:

Written assignment 1: Planning report and planning seminar
Learning outcomes: 1.1, 1.2,
Higher education credits: 2.0
Grades: Passed (G)/not passed (U)

Research Seminars:
Learning outcomes: 2.3, 3.2,
Higher education credits: 1.0
Grades: Passed (G)/not passed (U)

Blog/Logbook
Learning outcomes: 1.1, 2., 2.4
Higher education credits: 1.0
Grades: Passed (G)/not passed (U)

Presentation seminar
Learning outcomes: 1.1, 1.2, 2.1-2.3, 3.1
Higher education credits: 2.0
Grades: Passed (G)/not passed (U)

Written assignment 2: Written report
Learning outcomes: 1.1, 1.2, 2.1-2.4, 3.1
Higher education credits: 2.0
Grades: A-F

In order to receive the grade E on the course the student need to pass on all parts of the examination. The final grade on the course as a whole is based on the grade of the final report.

Student rights and obligations at examination are in accordance with guidelines and rules for the University of Borås.

Literature and Other Teaching Methods

Literature is selected on the basis of relevance in relation to the topic of the student’s project. Course management assist in this process although the student has the primary responsibility for sourcing literature.

Student Influence and Evaluation

The students’ opinions are collected systematically and regularly through written course evaluations once the course is completed. One time per semester, student representatives, together with the Director of Studies and Programme Directors, evaluate completed courses. For addition materials, please refer to the University's policy on course evaluation and documents established by the Department Board, the Director of Studies and the Course Director.

Miscellaneous

The course syllabus in Swedish is the official binding document.