Content

The course is aimed at students who want to learn more about the intersection of artificial intelligence (AI) and design practice. The course introduces the development of AI, theoretical concepts, methods, and practical applications of AI in a design context. The course also provides basic knowledge about ethical aspects of AI in artistic processes. Students are provided with knowledge and skills in AI-assisted design tools and software, AI techniques in design such as generative design and natural language processing, and the emerging trends and technologies in AI and design.

Learning Outcomes

After completing the course, the student will be able to:

1. demonstrate knowledge and understanding of basic concepts in AI,
2. demonstrate knowledge and understanding of AI from a design perspective,
3. demonstrate knowledge and understanding of basic design methods with tools based on AI,
4. demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the practical applications of AI in design through experimental, digital task-based practical work,
5. demonstrate basic skill and ability in the application of design practices using AI tools,
6. demonstrate basic ability to critically discuss and evaluate aesthetic and ethical aspects of artistic work with AI tools based on situations, environments, and results.

Forms of Teaching

Teaching takes the form of online presentations, lectures, remote coaching, and seminars.

The language of instruction is English.

Forms of Examination

The course will be examined through the following examination elements:

Home exam

Learning outcomes: 1,2

Credits: 5

Grading scale: Fail (U) or Pass (G)

Submission of project assignments

Learning outcomes: 3-5

Credits: 8

Grading scale: Fail (U) or Pass (G)

Seminar presentations

Learning outcomes: 6

Credits: 2

Grading scale: Fail (U) or Pass (G)

For the grade passed on the entire course, an approved grade is required for all parts.

If the student has received a decision/recommendation regarding special pedagogical support from the University of Borås due to disability or special needs, the examiner has the right to make accommodations when it comes to examination. The examiner must, based on the objectives of the course syllabus, determine whether the examination can be adapted in accordance with the decision/recommendation.

Student rights and obligations at examination are in accordance with guidelines and rules for the University of Borås.
