Content

The course aims to prepare and train students for studies at third-cycle level within artistic research specialising in textile and fashion design. The course includes both seminars, at which theories and examples of artistic design research are presented and discussed by course participants, and individual experimental studio work in order to present, discuss and give examples of their own proposals for an artistic research programme.

Learning Outcomes

On completion of the course, the student should be able to:

1. demonstrate knowledge of research methods within artistic design research,
2. present, discuss and give examples of proposals for an artistic research programme specialising in textile design or fashion design,
3. critically analyse current artistic design research in relation to their own design work.

Forms of Teaching

Tuition consists of literature studies, seminars and independent experimental studio work.

The language of instruction is English.

Forms of Examination

The course will be examined through the following examination elements:

- Seminar presentation (Learning outcomes 1-3) 2 credits, Grading scale: Fail (U)/Pass (G)
