Content

The course aims to develop artistic ability in knitting technology through application and experimental examination of the expressive and functional opportunities offered by various technologies. The main content of the course is as follows:

- Basic binding theory for weft knitting
- Quality assessment of various products and bindings
- Experimental knitting
- Sketch work on selected knitting machines
- Working methods and ways of thinking in relation to sustainable materials

Learning Outcomes

Once the course has been passed, students should be able to:

1. describe the classification, structure, properties and construction of various knitted products,
2. analyse fabrics and structures in clear knitted examples, and describe and document these,
3. carry out and run experimental design work in knitting technology,
4. develop and communicate a design idea to knitwear engineers for implementation,
5. apply adequate technologies and materials in relation to their own design concept,
6. document and reflect on technology in relation to the design process,
7. demonstrate an understanding of sustainable materials and approaches.

Forms of Teaching

The teaching takes the form of lectures, seminars, laboratory work, supervision and experiments.

The language of instruction is English.

Forms of Examination

The course will be examined through the following examination elements:

- Written exam (Learning outcomes 1) 2 credits Grading scale: Fail (U)/Pass (G)
- Assignment (Learning outcomes 2) 3 credits Grading scale: Fail (U)/Pass (G)
- Documented presentation and reflection (Learning outcomes 3-7) 2.5 credits Grading scale: Fail (U)/Pass (G)

For the grade passed on the entire course, an approved grade is required for all parts.

If the student has received a decision/recommendation regarding special pedagogical support from the University of Borås due to disability or special needs, the examiner has the right to make accommodations when it comes to examination. The examiner must, based on the objectives of the course syllabus, determine whether the examination can be adapted in accordance with the decision/recommendation.

Student rights and obligations at examination are in accordance with guidelines and rules for the University of Borås.
